ANOTHER SWINDLE

ing Aired Today at the Hearing of the Officials.

uragua Company Said to Claim Much for 35,000 Acres of Rich Land and in Reality Owns But 800 Acres of Swamp Lands.

age, Ibs., March 9.—Frank D. president; Orlin N. Vincent, vice-president, and R. L. Roulet, general manager, of the Nicaragua company, giving a hearing before com- mander Footh on charges of using all to defraud. The offices of company in this city were recently by the police and post office in Ketchum, who alleges its promoters were conducting gigantic swindle. While their printed prospectus used to induce investments is said to assert that the company owns 35,000 acres of plantations, all grown with bananas, rubber and coconut trees, and that the products of the land are paying 20 per cent on the stock, the government charges that the company has only title to 800 acres of swamp land. Many Ohio men have invested.

EMPLOYES ON WABASH RAILROAD

to Have the Order Dissolved Re- straining Them from Working.

uis, Mo., March 9.—Attorneys representing the Wabash railroad em- 10 o'clock this morning filed in the United States circuit court the temporary injunction against Judge Adams restraining employees from working. The asked to get a date upon which to hear the application for dis- of the temporary injunction. newer is a complete denial of bad intentions attributed to members of the brotherhood of railway trainmen and brotherhood of locomotive firemen. It relates the inner history of the men's efforts to secure recognition of their unions and a new wage scale. President Ramsey is accused of being arbitrary and unreasonable, denying conferences and refusing to treat with the organization. His offer to deal with the employees individually was taken up and written authority from 1,200 of the men presented to him. It is alleged he also refused to consider this.

IED TO KILL HER.

ced, Va., Mar. 9.—Alvis Sand- ume his sweetheart would not in, shot her three times while in her uncle's house, Sunday and then put three bullets in body. No one saw the shoot- e girl refuses to make a state- ary and Sandige may live.

ACT OF BRAVERY.

on, B. C., Mar. 9.—By the ex- of gas in the Nettie coal mine are dead and two are serious ed. The dead are: Allen Patrick C. Criley, Edward and Robert Savage. The two men and the bodies of the were rescued by the heroic work man named Jack T. McLeod.

New York, Mar. 9.—Broken down by disgrace and remorse, Philip Doblin, the self-confessed perjurer in the Congressman Montague Lessler bribery case, is a mental wreck and will be examined today by specialists for insanity. He charges that Lemuel Quigg arranged for him to bribe Lessler. Afterwards, he admitted his testimony was false. He was ostracized by friends and political acquaintances

MYSTERIOUS

Burdick Murder Case Has No New Developments.

Buffalo, N. Y., Mar. 9.—Up to noon today there were no new developments in the mysterious Burdick murder case. The police authorities and district attorney say that they are still working relentlessly on the case and that they are still hopeful of results. Chief Cusack said at noon today: "We went back at the case with renewed energy this morning and worked with the same caution as we did only when Burdick's body was discovered, but the result has been the same."

MOLINEUX,

Once Condemned, Now a Playwright.

Production Given for the First Time in New York City Today.

New York, March 9.—A playlet written by Roland B. Molineux, whose trial and acquittal last fall on a charge of murder attracted worldwide attention, was given its initial presentation today at a local vaudeville theatre and was favorably received. The piece deals with an episode of the Revolutionary war and was sketched out by Molineux while he was an inmate of the death chamber at Sing Sing prison.

FIFTEEN VICTIMS.

Glens Falls, N. Y., March 9.—The latest estimate as to the number of workmen who lost their lives in the ferry boat accident at Sepiers Falls, is 15. Two bodies have been found but many of the others may never be found. The river is swollen and running swiftly and the probabilities are that the bodies will be carried a great distance.

COOKED TO DEATH.

Peru, Ind., Mar. 9.—Charles M. Linden, engineer, was cooked to death and Adolph Richards, fireman, probably fatally scalded by escaping steam from a Wabash engine at Ashley last night. Both men lived at Delray, Michigan.

Chicago Stock Market.

Chicago, Ill., Mar. 9.—Cattle 30,000, show to 10 cents lower; hogs 38,000, active and firm; sheep 23,000, active, steady.

FAVORABLE

Report on the Panama Canal Treaty.

Washington, D. C., Mar. 9.—The senate committee on foreign relations today ordered a favorable report on the Panama canal treaty without amendments.

THE HOME

Of a Temperance Enthusiast Mobbed at Leipzig.

A crowd of men and boys, representing the wet faction of Leipzig and vicinity, visited the house of Rev. Dr. Daniel Carter, pastor of the Leipzig Methodist Episcopal church, while in an intoxicated condition, stamped upon the porch, yelling vainly for the doctor to come forth, called for a rope to string him up, and had tar and feathers ready to apply to him. The crowd cursed and defied the marshal to make arrests. The minister had been warned of their coming, the lights had been put out and everything about the house was as still as death. The angry crowd supposed the family absent and left without doing much damage to the property. Arrests will likely follow. Dr. Carter was the main factor in the local option movement, and the actions of the crowd were in retaliation.

PREPARE FOR VETS.

New Orleans, La., Mar. 9.—The local committee in charge of the arrangements for the reunion of the United Confederate veterans to be held here in May are in daily receipt of advices that indicate the attendance will be unusually large. Local camps throughout Georgia, Tennessee, Texas, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, the Carolinas and other states promise to attend in full force and the prospects are that the hotels and boarding houses of the Crescent city will be taxed to their utmost to accommodate the crowd. The arrangements committee is holding weekly meetings and many novel features are being planned for the entertainment of the visitors.

WARM WELCOME

Arranged for the Arrival of Archbishop Quigley.

Chicago, Ill., Mar. 9.—The clergy and laity of the Roman Catholic province of Chicago have made extensive preparations for the reception of Archbishop Quigley, who takes his farewell of his Buffalo bishopric today preparatory to assuming his new duties as archbishop of Chicago. He is expected to arrive in this city Wednesday, and the same evening there will be a mammoth welcoming demonstration in St. Mary's Cathedral. For several years prior to his death Archbishop Feehan was unable to take an active part in the management of the affairs of his archdiocese. Consequently the coming of Archbishop Quigley, who has the reputation of being one of the most advanced and active prelates of the Catholic church in America, is pleasing to the Catholics of Chicago, who regard the change as likely to result beneficially to the church.

LENTEN RETREAT.

New York, March 9.—Prominent society women, led by Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., are attending a Lenten retreat at the convent of the Sacred Heart this week. Each morning there is mass at 9 o'clock, followed by instruction in religious subjects. The number of New York society women who are observing Lent this year in a most serious fashion is said to be larger than for many years past. One of the consequences is that the theaters and other places of public entertainment are suffering financially and are buoyed up only by the knowledge that the social wheel will revolve all the faster when the season of sack-cloth and ashes has expired.

TOURNAMENT

For Tennis Championship for the South of France.

Paris, March 9.—The lawn tennis tournament for the championship of the south of France was begun today at Nice. This year Americans are chiefly interested in the meeting because the Doherty brothers hold the championship titles in both the singles and doubles. H. L. Doherty is the singles champion, and, paired with R. F. Doherty, holds the doubles. Another reason for the interest of Americans is the fact that Eugene Higgins of New York has given several thousand francs as prizes for the tournament.

APPOINTMENTS

All Around Lima But There is Nothing Doing Here.

Washington, Mar. 9.—The president today nominated David Lambert to be post master at Muncie, Ind.; Geo. W. Albrecht, at Middleboro, Ky.; Edwin F. Luckenbach at Mauchunk, Pa.; Frederick J. Eitter at South Omaha, Neb.; John M. Washington, at Sabina, Ohio; and W. T. Harris, at Charlevoix, S. C.

DEMOCRATS

All Ready for Their Big Convention in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., Mar. 9.—Headquarters were opened at the Hotel Normandie today in anticipation of the Democratic state convention. The convention will be called to order in the Light Guard armory at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning by Thomas E. Barkworth, of Jackson, the new chairman of the state committee. Though the nominations to be made are only for minor offices—justice of the supreme court and two regents of the state university—considerable interest is manifested in the convention. Old-time leaders of the party are active in an endeavor to have the convention adopt a platform that will tend to heal all party differences and unite all factions in view of the next gubernatorial campaign. So far the name of Judge G. L. Yapple, of Mendon, appears to be the most prominently mentioned in connection with the nomination for justice of the supreme court.

AUTO FIENDS

Admire the Horseless Variety in Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., Mar. 9.—The Automobile show which opened today in convention hall has attracted manufacturers and others interested in automobiles from many parts of the country. The exhibits number more than one hundred and fifty and include nearly every type of motor vehicle. Some of the machines on view were shown at the recent New York and Chicago exhibitions, while others are displayed for the first time. The exhibition is to continue through the week and gives promise of being a success from every point of view.

WABASH IS RISING.

Vincennes, Ind., Mar. 9.—The Wabash river is 18 feet today and still rising. Kelso Creek, north of the city is out of its banks and the cellars are flooded. People on the high ground in Illinois are now preparing to move and indications are that they will get the chance.

RAILROADS.

An L. E. & W. Operator Injured

In Attempting to Board a Train at St. Marys.

Ploughed Up a Lot of Ciuders in the St. Marys Yards But was Not Seriously Injured—Other Notes.

Chas. Keller, night operator for the L. E. & W., at Celina, was considerably bruised and shaken up as the result of an attempt to board a freight train in the Lake Erie yards at this place Friday evening, says the St. Marys News. He was on the engine, but concluded to get off and wait for the caboose. When the caboose end of the train came along, however, it was going so fast that when Keller attempted to get aboard, he was thrown into the air and fell headlong into the ciuders alongside the track. No serious injury resulted from the fall, however. Conscience Hurt Him.

Passenger Traffic Manager Edwards, of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road, received a letter from a Zanesville man enclosing fifty cents. The writer stated that twenty years ago he had a ride of seven miles on a C. H. & D. train, for which he did not pay. Having become a church member, he said he wanted to pay up, and the fifty cents would square the account, with interest, for twenty years.

Laid the Train Out.

No. 1, south bound passenger train on the Detroit Southern, was laid out near St. Johns, Saturday for two hours on account of a derailed car on a north bound local freight. Engineer John Pyle used every ounce of steam left to make up some of the lost time between St. Johns and Springfield, and made a fast run of it.

ABOUT READY FOR THE KEEL

Battleship Connecticut, the Experiment of the Navy Department

Attracts Much Attention Because Upon the Date of Its Completion Depends Whether or Not Other Battleships Will be Built by Uncle Sam's Own Navy Yard.

New York, March 9.—The ways of the new battleship Connecticut at Brooklyn Navy Yard are complete and an announcement was made today that work on the actual laying of the keel will probably begin next week.

In naval circles the progress in the construction of the Connecticut will be followed with closest interest. In the first place, the battleship is being built by the United States at one of its own yards, something that has not been done since the days of the old wooden ships of war. It has been contended by many high authorities that the building of the nation's warships could be done better and more cheaply by private contract than by the nation itself. In order to put the problem to a fair test, the government decided to construct the Connecticut itself and at the same time for the contract of her sister ship, the Louisiana, to a private contractor. The results, it is expected, will determine the questions as to whether Uncle Sam in future has better built his own warships.

There is another reason why the building of the Connecticut attracts unusual attention. The ship will be the largest ever built for the United States navy. She is to carry the heaviest armor and the most powerful ordnance for a vessel of her class upon a trial displacement of not more than 16,000 tons, and is to have the highest practical speed and the greatest radius of action. The ship will, of course, be built of steel, and her hull protected at the water line by a complete circle of armament. She is designed as a flagship and everything upon her will be of the most modern character.

SNOW PLOW RAN AWAY INJURING SEVERAL.

Broke Loose at the Top of a Hill and Crashed Into a Street Car.

Fall River, Mass., Mar. 9.—A runaway snow plow on the Old Colony street railway early this morning destroyed two cars, and hurt a number of passengers, five of whom were taken to the hospital. Snow plow became unmanageable at the top of a hill. Nearly a score of passengers were more or less injured, but five only were hurt seriously enough to necessitate the removal to the hospital. The occupants of the cars were mill operatives on their way to work.

GREATER ACTIVITY

In the Oil Production of the Hancock County Field is Expected

Though Hancock county has been on a receding scale since the fall of 1902, there are present indications that when the spring campaign is fairly launched, there will be a noticeable increase in activity through the entire Hancock county field. There are several special points where it is probable that good results will follow the work of the drill and in other portions of the field operators are taking chances on opening something a little better than is provided at present. Work has been somewhat retarded during the past week by bad floods, the waters are now receding and tests are again in good running order.

The bulk of new work seems to be in the southwestern portion of the county, where some new test wells will soon be drilled and where it is possible that development will exceed something better than the ordinary run of producers.

The Small of the Back

That is where some people feel week all the time.

They are likely to be despondent and it is not unusual to find them borrowing trouble as if they hadn't enough already.

The fact is their kidneys are weak, either naturally or because of sickness, exposure, worry or other influences.

"I am thankful to say," writes J. L. Campbell of Sycamore, Ill., "that Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me. For many years I was troubled with backache. At times I was so bad I had to be helped from the bed or chair. I am now well and strong and free from pain. What this great medicine did for him it has done for others."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Promises to cure and keeps the promise. Began treatment with Hood's today.

The Adams & Barber Oil Co. has a rig up for No. 6, on the D. B. Strangler farm in section 36 Union, near Amherstburg.

In Eagle township, there is not so much new work, but developments have been confined to a small portion in the northwestern corner of this township, and operators do not seem inclined to take many chances on going outside the previously defined limits. The well recently completed by the Anchor Oil Co. on the Brodes & Young farm, about three-fourths of a mile east of the Powell, in section 9, Eagle, was almost a duster, and though credited with a production of 5 barrels at the start, it may now be said to be worthless. There are reports that new work still farther eastward is in contemplation, but thus far it has not materialized.

The South Findlay Pool.

The week ending on February 25, was the best in the history of the South Findlay town lot pool as far as production is concerned, but there has been a falling back to the usual routine during the present week. There are now about 26 wells completed on the town lot fields, and as usual the production runs about two tanks per week, or probably 350 barrels. During the last week, the runs were more than 6 tanks, or more than 1,000 barrels. This may be accounted for partially by the fact that the weather suddenly improved and admitted of the operation of leases which had been tied up, while a couple of new wells made an excellent showing and added materially to the production.

On the east side of Rawson, in section 13, Union, the Co-operative Oil & Gas company has drilled in a well on the John Smith farm, which made quite a favorable showing at the start, and may prove to be a good producer. It is located about 1,000 feet north of the Ohio Oil Co.'s wells on the H. F. Gandy farm. When drilled 25 feet in the sand, there was a good showing of oil, and the well was put to pumping natural. It made 12 barrels the first day, but the tubing soon parted, and the owners are now drilling it deeper after which it will be shot.

Some new wells are now under way in Union township, and rigs are being taken in for a number of others. In section 24, the Ohio Oil Co. is drilling No. 4, on the A. Walter farm, and in section 26, the same company has No. 2, on the Jacob Ulrich under way.

In the latter section, A. N. Bryson & Co. have completed and shot their No. 7, on the Lewis Runkle farm, but it is still being cleaned out and its possible production is as yet unknown. The same parties have a rig in for No. 11, on the A. Lewis Runkle farm.

Batties & Jones have a bad fishing job at their No. 7, on the S. E. Newcomer farm, in section 26 Union. The tools have been lost and the work of completion will be considerably delayed.

Hay lot, Franklin Cooper lot, and Easting lot. The No. 1 on the J. Balsley lot, which was very light when completed, is being drilled deeper with the hope of increasing its production, but it appears to be classed with the worthless ones.

On the southern end of Factory street, the Barnett Oil & Gas company is drilling a well on the Tarbox & McCall lot, located in the reservoir. This is west of the previous town lot we A. Another well is being drilled near the camp meeting ground, but the name of the lot or its owner cannot be seen.

The Elcho Oil Co. & Black, owners of 15 wells in the pool, are drilling others, and seem to have the best thing to be found in connection with the town lot work. The well on the Schwartz lot, which started as a natural producer, made one tank of oil, and was drilled deeper. No. 1 on the J. Lockwood lot made a little spray when drilled in, but will be a small well at best. The First National Bank well is still being drilled.

N. H. Bowly is drilling No. 3 on the L. Atman tract, in section 36 Union, where his No. 2, is a very small well. Mrs. Kate Carlin has No. 3, on her property, north of the Tangent Line depot under way. Shafer & Co.'s No. 1, on the C. W. Turley farm was a light well, and it also will be drilled deeper.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throw up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed.

"Well, one day at dinner time Dick made some remarks about roping a Greaser down in Texas and hauling him across the prairie until he was worn out. The Mexican answered by saying that man must have been asleep or dead, for you could not rope a live man and do that. Dick jumped off his feet and pulled his gun, and Pedro did the same. I rushed between them and ordered them to put up their guns. The Mexican's black eyes shone like a ratiocinate when about to strike, but he put the gun back in his belt, and Dick did the same.

"I knew there would be trouble, and how to avoid it was a question not easily solved. I ordered the horse wrangler to fetch up the saddle horses, for I intended to move on that afternoon. The Mexican spoke to Dick, and they walked off to one side and talked in a low tone for a few minutes. When the horses came up, I noticed both men saddled up their best horses.

"They both unyoked their lasso ropes and stretched them out side by side. Dick's rope was about 45 feet long and Pedro's about 60 feet. Pedro drew his knife from his belt and cut his rope the exact length of Dick's. Then they coiled up their ropes carefully, and each man led his horse in opposite directions until they were about 100 yards apart. Then they mounted like a dash and rode toward each other.

"I stood holding my horse by the bridle and watched every move. I will never forget the look of hate and murder on the Mexican's face. His lips were apart, showing his white teeth, and a wicked smile seemed to play about his mouth. Dick's lips were set tight, and a look of rigid courage combined on his savage face.

"They rode slowly toward each other for about 70 yards, watching each other like a couple of caged panthers. Then they made a dash, and both eyes shot out like a streak of lightning. Both men dodged and escaped. In an instant they had gathered up their ropes and began to circle around and around.

"I could hear the swish of their ropes as they swung them around their heads, each man trying to get some advantage. They charged back and forth, and finally both threw their ropes again. It was a close call for Dick, for the Mexican got his rope over Dick's head, but Dick threw it off before he could pull up the slack.

"In an instant Pedro had gathered up his rope and threw it again and caught Dick around the head and one arm. He drove the spurs into his horse and started across the prairie, but like a dash Dick's hand went to his pistol, and before the Mexican could pull him from his horse, Dick sent a bullet through his head, and the Mexican fell to the ground dead.

"But Dick was jerked from his horse with terrible force, for the Mexican had made the end of his rope fast to the saddle horn. The Mexican's horse ran a short distance and then stopped, and before I could get to him one of the other Mexicans had ridden up and emptied his six shooter into Dick's body. He then put spurs to his horse and soon disappeared across the prairie, and that was the last I ever saw of him.

"The other Mexican told me that was the third duel of that kind that Pedro had fought and always got his man."—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

No Birthplace.
A remark made by a 9-year-old boy on certain occasion was the natural result of confusion in his small mind, but it caused amusement to the bystanders.

The house in which he had first seen the light of day had been torn down to make room for a wider street, and the little boy, holding fast to his father's hand, viewed the ruins with grief and amazement.

"Why, papa?" he cried sorrowfully. "Why, papa, I wasn't born anywhere now, was I?"—Youth's Companion.

"Yes, that's Guggenthaler. He made a fortune once by inventing a road scraper."

"What did he do with his money?"
"He sunk it in a skyscraper."—Chicago Tribune.

FOUGHT WITH ROPES

THE LAS DO AS A DEADLY WEAPON IN A COWBOY DUEL

Two Desperados Who Were AILED IN HORSEMANSHIP AND ADEPT IN FLINGING THE Lariat Shoved Off This Mortal Coil.

"I once witnessed a duel with lasso ropes between a Mexican and an American," said Joe Hampton. "It happened about 20 years ago, and it was about as exciting a piece of work as I ever saw. I was foreman at that time for the Seven Up (U P) horse ranch in Wyoming, and we were on our way from Sydney, Neb., with a band of mares that had been shipped from the Missouri to Sydney. We had to drive the animals overland to the home ranch.

"Well, I picked up an outfit of men around Sydney, seven Americans and three Mexicans, a tough lot. We started out, and when we got to the Big Cheyenne river, south of the Black Hills, we stopped to let the horses rest for a few days. There was one Mexican, Pedro Gonzales, about the most ill-tempered and most quarrelsome man I ever saw. He fell out with an American by the name of Dick McAll, an all-around bad man. I knew Dick by reputation, and he had a bad record.

"Well, one day at dinner time Dick made some remarks about roping a Greaser down in Texas and hauling him across the prairie until he was worn out. The Mexican answered by saying that man must have been asleep or dead, for you could not rope a live man and do that. Dick jumped off his feet and pulled his gun, and Pedro did the same. Then they coiled up their ropes carefully, and each man led his horse in opposite directions until they were about 100 yards apart. Then they mounted like a dash and rode toward each other.

"I stood holding my horse by the bridle and watched every move. I will never forget the look of hate and murder on the Mexican's face. His lips were apart, showing his white teeth, and a wicked smile seemed to play about his mouth. Dick's lips were set tight, and a look of rigid courage combined on his savage face.

"They rode slowly toward each other for about 70 yards, watching each other like a couple of caged panthers. Then they made a dash, and both eyes shot out like a streak of lightning. Both men dodged and escaped. In an instant they had gathered up their ropes and began to circle around and around.

"I could hear the swish of their ropes as they swung them around their heads, each man trying to get some advantage. They charged back and forth, and finally both threw their ropes again. It was a close call for Dick, for the Mexican got his rope over Dick's head, but Dick threw it off before he could pull up the slack.

"But Dick was jerked from his horse with terrible force, for the Mexican had made the end of his rope fast to the saddle horn. The Mexican's horse ran a short distance and then stopped, and before I could get to him one of the other Mexicans had ridden up and emptied his six shooter into Dick's body. He then put spurs to his horse and soon disappeared across the prairie, and that was the last I ever saw of him.

"The other Mexican told me that was the third duel of that kind that Pedro had fought and always got his man."—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

No Birthplace.
A remark made by a 9-year-old boy on certain occasion was the natural result of confusion in his small mind, but it caused amusement to the bystanders.

The house in which he had first seen the light of day had been torn down to make room for a wider street, and the little boy, holding fast to his father's hand, viewed the ruins with grief and amazement.

"Why, papa?" he cried sorrowfully. "Why, papa, I wasn't born anywhere now, was I?"—Youth's Companion.

If the Trailing of the Murderers

Who Brutally Murdered One of the Sullivan Sisters at Toledo.

detective Carew, Who was One of the Sleuths That Followed the Long Trail, Denies the Thrilling Story.

some Toledo newspaper man has missed his calling. The following story, which is modestly but emphatically denied by its hero, detective Nick Carew, would send Nick Carter's author to the rear seat at any stage of the game. The story will probably be published in "yellow back" form as it is too good to keep it, is even below but should be taken with liberally supplied side dish of salt.

Although bound by promises given to detective "Silver Jack" Carew not to reveal all the true story of his work in the Sullivan murder case until such time as he gives permission to do so.

The Bee says that paper of Toledo is enabled to throw considerable light on the events that led to the arrest and conviction of Al Wade in the murder of Kate Sullivan and the indictment of Ben Wade and Ben Landis for the same crime.

After almost three years of patient work, Jack Carew has brought one man to justice and has two more within the clasp of the electric chair for one of the foulest crimes in Lucas county.

On the night of April 1, 1900, Ed O'Brien, the brutal slayer and cult of the Sullivan sisters, was

Word of the crime did not reach the police in Toledo until 1 o'clock on Ed's Sunday morning and it was not until 7 o'clock Sunday morning that Carew was detailed to take full charge of the case.

The subsequent development in this case furnish the most remarkable story of detective work ever heard of in Toledo.

Eggshears a Clue.

Some broken eggshells with a few punctured marks led to the apprehension of the murderers.

When Carew reached Trilby Cross Roads, or Rattlesnake Corners, as the vicinity of the Sullivan home was known on that Sunday morn three years ago, he saw a motley crowd of curiosity seekers who did not know the white-haired sleuth as he walked from group to group, his ears open for the faintest hint that would put him on the right track. He had been to the house and had gone over the ground carefully. The condition of the Sullivan sisters was such at that time that it was impossible to secure information from them.

Again Carew returned to the vicinity of the Sullivan home, and by mingling with the farmers ascertained that on the day of the murder a horse and wagon had been noticed on the edge of the woods. The rig was described to the detective minutely.

When he was taken to the place where the rig had been seen Carew noticed in the soft clay of the road that one of the wheels was "wobbly" and did not track true. The same peculiarity was noticeable in the tracks near where the five broken eggs were found. The wheel marks were followed to the city limits but on the stone road all trace of them was lost.

City Treasurer, subject to the decision of the Republican city convention.

For Constable.

Daniel B. Miller wishes to announce his candidacy for re-nomination by the Republicans of Lima for the position of Constable.It is very forty politics that is being worked by the anti-Hannibal Republican candidates for member of the board of public service to play for a primary election rather than for a convention to make nominations.The lesson to the farmers of the country of the tricks that the beef combine has used to obtain their cattle at less than the true market value is plainly shown in the records and decisions in this case. When shipments of cattle or logs to the Chicago or Kansas City markets were light, the packers combined to bid up prices to stimulate shipments, intending to cease from bidding when the shipments had arrived. These quoted words are those of Judge Grosscup, who has just granted a preliminary injunction and overruled the demurrer that the beef barons had set up.If all the trusts and corporations that will be under the new bureau of corporations would pay to the Republican campaign managers in 1904 even 1 per cent of their earnings, the amount would be so stupendous that it would stagger even Hanna and those who are trained in debauching the voters.It is very forty politics that is being worked by the anti-Hannibal Repub-

Rev. George H. Sims pastor of the south Lima Church of Christ is preparing to ordain for the ministry

Messrs. Allen and Vertner two young men who recently expressed a desire to engage in that calling.

Mr. Vertner is now in charge of the Church of Christ at Uniopolis.

Mr. Allen preached a trial sermon at Payne yesterday, and may be called to that place. The ordination exercises will occur at the conclusion of the revival services now in progress at

Mr. Sims church.

Moved to Kenton.

M. A. Smith and family of south

Pine street left today for Kenton,

where they will make their future home. Mr. Smith having accepted a position with a dry goods company in that city. During his residence here

Mr. Smith was engaged as a brakeman in the employ of the Lake Erie and Western railroad. Mr. and Mrs.

Smith came here from Kenton about two years ago and during their residence here became thoroughly liked in a wide circle of friends who wish them every possible success in their future home.

Arranged Races

Ruby White of Harrold called upon his parent Mr. and Mrs. Reuben

White of south Central avenue Saturday afternoon.

Mr. White informed local friends that his program for the races to be held at the fair grounds had been accepted by the committee in charge and of which he is chairman. The races will consist of eight harness and eight running races for a purse of $3,500.

Elegant Speaker

Rev. Jackson, of Dayton addressed large audiences at the Alliance church on south Main street yesterday. His sermons made a profound impression upon the large congregations present.

Will Attend

Reuben White of south Central ave-will attend the unveiling ceremonies of an Ohio monument upon the Shiloh battle field in April. It is quite probable a number of others from here

will attend.

Will Inspect

Col. L. L. Rector will go to Kenton to inspect company F. O. N. tomorrow evening. He will also do duty in address upon the attorney bill.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. J. Good of Branch

LIVING FROM HAND TO MOUTH.

It Means Starvation for Some.

An eminent physician of this city recently said: "Very thin people live from hand to mouth, and have little reserve for emergencies." Of course we know of persons whose nature it is to be thin—"born that way," some ay, but there is a healthy standard by which a person who knows himself can gauge his good health or poor health. If for any reason he or she is below his or her normal weight, then it is wise to look out for trouble. In case the germs of grippe, typhoid, or consumption gain an entrance to the body they find a fertile field and develop immediately. We can only compare this sudden taking on of disease germs by the thin body, to an all other narcotics.

FIXED DATES IN RUSSIA.

A story is told of a rustic who, after imbibing too freely, fell asleep by the wayside. The day was hot, and a swarm of flies settled on his face and proceeded to make his skin anything but pleasant. But little while a few mosquitoes came along to find their torture to that of the flies. Of course the man woke up after repeated stings by the combined forces and valiantly tried to brush them away. Finally along came a big wasp and stung him on the nose. "Now, for that you can't get off," he said.

Well Again.

The many friends of John Blount will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of consumption. Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in the town (Menon, Ind.) had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by Wm. M. McEvily, old post office corner.

Cured with the Liniment.

In the "Times-Democrat" of last Saturday, the Chamberlain's Pain Balm was on the London market, says: "If you take a piece of this, you will be a perfect nothing and very strongly so, which amuses us all so much that we could hardly re-hearse it. Chamberlain used every care and then to warn us: 'Now, don't speak too soon on that. There's a chance to be a big man, and we don't want them to miss the next line.' We refused for six weeks. On the first night nothing went wrong—but the pieces. There was not one laugh nor one round of applause from start to finish. We took off the comedy in ten days, during which we rehearsed as a stop gap a conventional three act farce with no literary pretensions. I think it ran for a year."

What is a Name?

Once upon a time there was a creditor or a large amount whose debtor constantly refused payment. The creditor became impatient and after investigation found that the debtor lived in a better house than he did, dressed better, clothed his wife in silks, satins and laces and spent dollars where he, the creditor, spent cents. Then he was wrath.

"I will sue the wealthy debtor," he said, "and collect what is owing me." He brought suit and disclosed a large amount of valuable property, but, alas, it was all in the name of the debtor's wife, and he got not a single cent.

$3,000 FORFEIT will be cheerfully paid in lawful money of the United States, by the undersigned, proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, if they cannot show the original letters and signatures of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing attesting the superior curative properties of their several medicines, and thus proving the genuineness and reliability of all the multitude of testimonials volunteered by grateful people, in their behalf.

Mr. Roy A. Reed, of Casper, Wyoming, writes: "For eight years past, and the throat in the very worst form, could hardly speak above a whisper for two years. Tried nearly a dozen patent medicines without relief. I was so disengaged that I just about decided catarrh could not be cured with any medicine. My father, however, advised me to try Dr. Pierce's medicines before giving up. I followed his advice and commenced using the medicine on the twentieth of December. I was surprised to note the result of the first month's treatment. After using six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, I was in much greater strength than before since I took the last medicine, and I have not had the least return of my trouble. I have felt better during the past two months than for seven winters previous to this time."

Mrs. Lydia James, of Ogdensburg, Wis., writes: "In regard to your Medicine will say that the 'Golden Medical Discovery' is a God-send to suffering women. I was sick in bed with liver complaint and kidney disease and fever when I began to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. In ten days' time I was so I could begin to get around the house and gained right strength from that took about five bottles of it and am sure it would have been for my grave by this time had it not been for this remedy. I would advise all suffering women to use Dr. Pierce's medicines."

Mrs. Robt. Lambden, of Havana, N. Dak., Box 20, writes: "No one can tell how much I suffered with my leg. It was so bad for a year I could hardly walk around to do my work, and at times could not even bear the weight of a sheet over me at night, but your medicines cured me. My leg is quite well again. After I had taken two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, I began to feel very different, and kept getting better. Took nine bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' also used Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, and now my leg is as well as it ever was. Am willing everyone should know what good your medicines have done, and would advise any one suffering as I did to try the same treatment I think and feel sure it will help them."

THE REASON.—There is no medicine equal to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for purifying the blood. It carries off the poisons which contaminate the life fluid. It increases the activity of the blood-making glands and gives the body an increased supply of pure, body-building blood. It builds up the body with sound, healthy flesh instead of flabby fat, promotes the appetite, feeds the nerves, and so gives to wear, nervous people vitality and vigor.

There is no alcohol contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

World's Dispensary Med. Ass'n, Prop.,

663 Main St., BUFFALO, N. Y.

For over a third of a century Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been in common use in this country, been taken by thousands of people and has cured thousands as our file of testimonials will prove—yet no one ever heard of its harming a single person. That is because it is made of purely vegetable ingredients—is scientifically prepared in the Medical Laboratory of the World's Dispensary, at Buffalo, N. Y., under the supervision of Dr. R. V. Pierce.

The Final Straw.

LIABLE TO EXPLODE.

A HOG'S MOUTH.

The

Way It Enables the Animal to Eat Hickory Nuts.

"People often wonder how it is that a hog can get all the kernel out of a hickory nut, or any other kind of nut for that matter, without swallowing any of the shell," said a man from the country, "but as a matter of fact there is nothing mysterious about the process. Mind you, hogs don't swallow any of these harder substances. They get rid of them, and then it is just as easy for them to get rid of the shell of a nut as it is for a man or a squirrel. You might think because a hog crushes the nut into small fragments that he would necessarily swallow a good portion of the hull. But he doesn't do any such thing.

It is a conceded fact among men who know anything about the subject that the horse is the most perfectly constructed animal in the world, considering the purposes for which the horse is used and its method and habits in life. But I want to put in a good word for the hog when it comes to the taking of cracking and eating nuts without getting any of the harder substances into the stomach. The horse has very fine teeth. The back teeth particularly are finely constructed with a view of enabling the horse to crush its food well before passing it into the stomach. Those heavy grinders, heavily set in the horse's jaw, are looked upon as marvels. So are they.

"But what's the matter with the teeth of the hog? What's the matter with that marvelous process by which they separate the kernel of the nut from the hull? It has occurred to me that this is no small achievement, and nature is at least entitled to some sort of tribute for her skill in making this result possible. In the first place the hog's tongue is more sensitive than would be supposed, and it can easily detect the harder from the softer substances. By some sort of process the hog is able to work the bits of hickory nut hull over to the sides of its mouth, the tongue being used for the purpose, and here they are thrown out at the corners. Probably you have noticed that the corners of a hog's mouth are somewhat different from the corners of the mouths of other animals. The lines of the mouth do not end so pointedly and hence it is a much easier thing for the hog to work the harder substances which it does not care to swallow out through these little openings." —New Orleans Times-Democrat.

A good many years ago it was discovered that cellulose soaked in strong nitric acid changed from a substance no more harmful than paper to a fierce explosive. The number of materials on which nitric acid will work similar transformation is almost endless. Wood, paper, straw, coal, peat, pitch, starch, sugar, tea tan, phosphorus, iron, zinc, copper and magnesium are only a few that could be named.

One of the best known and most terrible of these mixtures is nitroglycerin, which is simply nitric acid and common glycerin mixed together and allowed to fall into a stream of water. Dynamite is nothing more than nitroglycerin absorbed by some spongey substance. Alum, asbestos, plaster of paris, sandstone, brain, meat, even dried and powdered potatoes, have been employed for this purpose, but the substance most commonly employed is what is known as "kiesel guin," or sponge earth. This is the kind of clay formed of minute fossil shells, great beds of which are found in Germany and other parts of the world.

Guncotton, which was first made in 1861, is the form of nitro compound usually employed in war. It is manufactured from ordinary cotton waste treated with a mixture of nitric and sulphuric acids. There is one very curious point about guncotton. It cannot be made from raw cotton in the bale; waste cotton is necessary for its manufacture. It seems as if the bleaching to which manufactured cotton has been subjected has something to do with it. The waste is, however, completely useless for making guncotton, and if even a little is carelessly used a whole batch of the manufactured product may be spoiled.

Guncotton is so extraordinarily sudden in its action that a small quantity has been exploded in contact with a heap of gunpowder and has failed to set fire to it.

The great advantage which guncotton possesses over all other explosives is that damp does not injure it. In fact, wet guncotton explodes with just as great violence as dry, but is of course much harder to fire. Consequently it is one of the safest explosives to carry, as it can be thoroughly wetted before packing and kept wet during transport. For mining purposes or for use in war guncotton is usually compressed into hard cakes.

The cordite which is now used in British military rifles is a rather more compound substance, being composed of thirty-seven parts of guncotton mixed with fifty-eight of nitroglycerin and five parts of mineral jelly. It is formed into little cords each three-eighths of an inch in diameter. These are made up into little fuses which are placed in the cartridges.

What seems a very odd substance from which to make an explosive is gutta percha. But by the action of nitric acid it can be turned into a formidable detonator.

Each country has its pet powder. The United States uses picrate of ammonia, the French have a beautiful semi-transparent, chestnut colored powder made of the nitrates of potassium and barium. Besides these there are dozens of explosives with fancy names such as ballistite, ammonite, rifleite, radite, plastomite. These vary in size and shape of grain, color and power, but they all depend on the action of nitric acid for their explosive force.—Atlanta Constitution.

SLOW-HEALING SORES

Slow healing sores are unsightly, painful and dangerous. They are a constant care and source of anxiety and worry.

Chronic, slow healing sores are frequently the after effects of some long debilitating sickness that leaves the constitution weakened and the blood in a polluted, run down condition, when a scratch, cut, simple boil or bruise, becomes a fearful looking ulcer that grows and spreads, eating deeper and deeper into the flesh in spite of everything that can be done to check its progress. Old people whose blood is below the standard and the circulation sluggish, are often tormented with face sores, and indolent, sickly looking ulcers upon the limbs that give them hardly a moment's rest from pain and worry.

Ordinary sores Purify the Blood, when the blood is too weak to throw off the germs and poisons, and no amount of external treatment will heal them, but they continue to grow worse and worse, and many times terminate in that most horrible of all human maladies, Cancer.

S. S. cures slow healing sores by purifying and invigorating the germladen, vitiated blood and purging the system of all corrupt matter, thus striking at the real cause and removing every hindrance to a rapid cure, and this is the only possible way to reach these deeply rooted, dangerous places. S. S. strengthens and tones up the circulation and supplies rich, nutritious blood for the rebuilding of the constitution and healing the sore, when you get rid of the old plague spot for all time.

If you have a slow healing, stubborn sore, write us about it, and our Physician will advise you without charge.

The Democrats of Shawnee township met in convention at the township house on Saturday afternoon, and nominated a township ticket, and transacted such other business as usually devolves upon such conventions. The caucus was organized by the selection of C. W. Burkhardt as chairman and J. A. Umbaugh as secretary, and the meeting throughout was a harmonious and successful one. The following persons will be elected in next April to the following offices respectively:

Beach Graham, trustee; C. A. Russel, Justice of the Peace; J. B. Mayer, treasurer; W. A. McBeth, Assessor; Paul Wiesenmeyer and Frank Wolf, constables; Wm. Rusler, Road Supervisor District No. 4; Amos Harpster, Road Supervisor District No. 2; Fred Goodman, Road Supervisor, District No. 2.

The following names were presented at the caucus as candidates for the various delegates to be voted for on April the 6th next, for County Delegates—Beach Graham, Levi Crates, Paul Mayer, W. G. Bowsher, J. A. Umbaugh, W. T. Kimes, J. F. Bowsher, C. H. Lehman, Geo. Danner, C. W. Burkhardt and Amos Harpster. For Senatorial Delegate—Ben Harpster.

C. A. Rusler was elected central committee man and G. W. Bowsher and Amos Harpster, a committee to fill vacancies. The convention adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved by the Democrats of Shawnee township in convention assembled that we cordially recommend C. W. Burkhardt to the coming county convention as well fitted to be a delegate to the state convention and the delegates to the county convention from this township, are hereby instructed to use all honorable means to secure his election as such delegate.

Be it further Resolved, That the programs of this convention be published in the Times-Democrat of Lima and the Bi-County Review of Cradlersville.

Two More Names Announced.

The names of two more candidates for the Republican nomination for member of the Board of Public Service have been announced in the Review.

republican organ. The new aspirants are J. R. Hughes and John Thomas. This makes an even dozen in the list of Republicans who would like to serve on the new board.

Charley Klob in the Race.
A dispatch from Defiance says: "Delegates to the Fifth District Senatorial Convention were selected by the Democrats in Defiance county yesterday. The aspirants on the ground were Dr. Denman, of Williams county; Senator W. E. Decker, of Paulding county, and Charles A. Klob, of Mercer county. In the choosing of delegates, Klob lost out. Before the caucuses opened a sharp contest resulted between the supporters of Decker and Denman, and Decker secured a solid delegation from Defiance county for his third term."

LIKENS

Murderer Al Wade to a Week Old Corpse.

His Awful Fate Seems to be With Him All Hours of the Day and Night.

"Al Wade's hands are cold with the clammy moisture of a week-old corpse," was the cheering statement a local officer of the law who visited the condemned murderer yesterday afternoon in his cell, made to the Toledo Bee. Wade went through an hour's conversation with the officer in which he reiterated his recent statements about not having been at the Sullivan home until he went there with the jury.

More interesting to the officer than Wade's statement was the physical condition of the man. His eyes were sunken far back in his head and perspiration gathered in large beads on his forehead as he talked. It seemed as though the fate which awaits him stares him in the face day and night, and the horrible coldness of his hands sent a sickening chill through the man who shook them.

Rev. Mr. Barkdull, who sat on the Wade jury yesterday spent some time in offering spiritual consolation to Al Wade. How Wade received the consolation is not distinctly known, but from what can be learned, he was very meek and quiet about it.

FORGER,

Wanted in Celina, Captured at Kenton, Saturday.

Perry Miller, 27 years old, living 10 miles north of Celina, was arrested Saturday night at Kenton, and taken back to Celina by Marshal Weber to answer a warrant sworn out by Edward Voke, cashier of the Mendon bank, of Mendon, charging forgery.

Miller it is alleged, forged the name of his mother, Amelia J. and sister Mary Winger to notes of $200 and $50 held by W. F. Schenck, of Celina, and gave Schenck a check last Monday for $25, forging the name of his cousin, W. N. Miller, undertaker at Mendon. Miller left the vicinity March 2, and this aroused suspicion.

Gang of Three Safe Blowers Captured at Anderson, Ind., May Know All About the Continental Robbery.

Joe King and James Smith, two of the gang of five supposed crooks, who were corralled at Pat Collier's saloon on south Main street Friday afternoon, have been released from the custody of the local police. There was an unofficial statement made by one of the Toledo papers to the effect that the trio would be taken to that city by Federal authorities but chief Miss received no such information from the government officials and this morning Smith and King were released, there being nothing against them to warrant any charge upon which they could be held longer.

Both prisoners were seen by a number of persons while they were at the police station and one of them was identified as Joe "Nipper," a character well known by the police throughout northwestern Ohio.

Morgan, who gave officers Fenstermaker and Billstein such a battle before being captured, will be given a hearing tomorrow on the charge of shooting with intent to kill.

THIS GANG

May Know More Than Morgan of the Continental Robbery.

A dispatch from Anderson, Ind., says:

"Three men, believed to be professional safe blowers and post office robbers, were captured tonight by police officers and farmers and locked up here. It was a clever and important catch and it is thought that it saved the Pendleton postoffice from being blown to pieces tonight."

The janitor of a schoolhouse near Pendleton, eight miles west, reported to officers here this afternoon that he had found in the woodshed of the schoolyard three loaded revolvers, some queer tools and a bottle of liquid. Chief of Police Robbins and officer Pease went out and were joined by 10 farmers with loaded shotguns.

Nearly Pitch Dark.

It was almost pitch dark in the grove where the schoolhouse is located but the officers and farmers with guns cocked patiently waited. Then three men came toward the wood shed. Officers and farmers with their guns suddenly bobbed up, surrounded the three unknown men and then they surrendered. They had more tools in their pockets and also safe cracker's soap and fuses for explosives. A search of the wood shed then turned up over $200 worth of postage stamps. At police headquarters the men captured gave as their names Frank Slosson, of Cleveland, O.; W. J. Schroder, no home; John Gibson, Sharpen, Pa. They are apparently from 40 to 45 years old, big and sturdy looking fellows.

Knew the Men.

"They would not talk further than to give names supposed to be fictitious.

"Chief of Police Robbins earlier in the day had arrested a man who gave the name of Arthur Cook, and who is said to have a police record as 'Slim, the Crook.' He had been robbing freight cars. At the jail tonight he indicated that he knew the three men caught tonight, and officers think he belonged to the gang of safe crackers. During the past two months several postoffices in small towns in central Indiana have been robbed, the safes being cracked so neatly that the men doing it had always escaped. The stamps found tonight, it is thought, were from the postoffice at Daleville, Ind., where the safe was blown four weeks ago.

OBTAINED

Fraudulent Divorce and Goe to the Pen.

Henry Meredith Frey, accused of obtaining a fraudulent divorce from Myra Frey, was sentenced to the penitentiary and fined $1,000 by a jury in Judge McWen's court, says a Chicago dispatch. Carl Larzon and James F. Johnson, who assisted Frey by their alleged false testimony that Mrs. Frey had deserted her husband, were found guilty and fined $50 each.

Frey, who was a prominent church worker, induced his wife to go to Van Wert county, Ohio, and live with relatives until he could obtain a divorce from a pretended former wife who was still living. While his wife was in Ohio, Frey brought suit for divorce against her, alleging desertion. Obtaining a writ he married another woman. Frey was an indefatigable church worker, and, it is alleged, that while praying for a divorce from his wife here, he sent letters to his wife in which he included big kisses and bear hugs.

Good for father. Good for mother. Good for the whole family. Makes the children eat, sleep and grow. Rocky Mountain Tea is a family blessing. 35 cents.
